“ Dear Jane and David,

Please accept my deepest condolences at this time. I knew Fay from my days at All Angels Church. Fay was a fabulous mentor to me and spiritual director who certainly has been among the most influential people in my life. I will always remember her joy, her kindness, her gift of encouragement, and her deep, deep faith.

With warmest regards,

“ Dear Jane, I have so many wonderful memories of you and Ron and Fay and David. I didn't know until just now about Ron. All of you were important in my life--especially Fay. The small prayer group of CFO women that met weekly in her apartment for years was a saving grace for me. I would dearly love to be in touch with you.

Just to let you know a little about me. I'm happily living in Reading, Pa. near Liz and her family. Peter lives near DC. Andy and Tom are both in North Carolina.

I send you lots of love and blessings. You can get my contact info from Louisa Turner at All Angels. I would just love to hear from you.

Peace and blessings, Kathy Maier

“ My sincere sympathy to Jane and David on reading of Fay's death. In early 2000's we shared an experiential learning program on Focusing, which is a way to trust our body's reactions in leading one into greater spiritual depth and understanding. After the course, we would meet at Fay's lovely apartment in NYC and lead one another through the steps of the process. It always began with a lovely cup of Twinings Tea and lemon cake or some other sweet. I remember the view from her apartment. Being with Fay was always so life giving and I came away renewed by our sharing. She often spoke of her local Episcopal faith community and its presence in her life. Fay was such a gracious woman and I shall always be grateful for having known her. "May the angels come to greet her....."

“ My sincere condolences to Fay's family. What a treasure you have lost. I knew Fay in the 1980's and 90's when she came to me for spiritual direction and remember her as a warm, deeply spiritual and generous woman - gracious and kind. I lost touch with her over these last 20 or so years but am sure her spirituality only deepened during that time. May her seeking now be fulfilled. She, and all of you, will be held in my prayer.

“ My condolences to Fay's family. I just became aware of Fay's passing. I knew and worked with Fay during her many years as an Early Childhood director in District 10. She was a mentor and teacher to me! Her knowledge and love of young children was always an inspiration ! I learned much of what I practiced from her! I passed on this knowledge to many teachers and administrators during my time as an educator. Her kind heart and wonderful spirit will be constantly present in the friends, colleagues and children she has touched.
