

Joyce Barasch

October 24, 1942 - April 6, 2019

Brighton: October 24th, 1942 - April 6th, 2019. Joyce leaves her husband, Alan; son, Michael Rafone (Tiffany); daughter, Elizabeth Davidson; grandsons, Tyler Giovanni (Melanie) and Jordan Mitteco; and special supportive friends.

After a 49 year battle with Multiple Sclerosis, Joyce moves on to join all of her pals at the rainbow bridge. The daunting challenges of MS made both her academic and professional achievements all the more impressive. Joyce's war with MS was unprecedented. She had the heart of a warrior yet a loving soul.

A Memorial Service will be held at a later date. Donations may be made in Joyce's name to a charity of your choice.

“ Dear Anne,
I was very sorry to hear that your sister, Joyce, had passed away. Although I didn't know her I've been thinking of you and your family and send my condolences to you all.. You have been in my thoughts - I wish you weren't so far away. Sending you a virtual hug.

“ Alan, I was so saddened to see Joyce's obituary in the paper yesterday. Even though I had only known her a little more than a year, Joyce and I became good friends. After all, Joyce was not the type of person you could keep on the periphery of your life. She encompassed everyone who came into her life. I am honored that she called me friend. I will miss her.

“ Joyce was and is a great friend to me and I will miss her dearly. Great fighter and warrior. She showed MS whose boss! I will not forget our joyous times together at Wesley and the many laughs and stories we shared. You made me a better person and I was privileged to know and care for you. The 49 year struggle is over and here is to you - life well lived! I will see you again on the other side. Until then keep smiling and enjoy your dogs. Love ya!
